

PAUL J. HEHIR is Associate Vice President of Litigation at Royal Caribbean International/Celebrity Cruises. Paul obtained his undergraduate degree from Boston College and Juris Doctorate from Suffolk University Law School. He has been an attorney in the maritime industry for over 17 years and is currently the Associate Vice President of Litigation for Royal Caribbean Cruises Limited (RCCL) where he manages 7 attorneys and 11 claims adjusters in the defense of crew and passenger claims. Prior to his employment at RCCL he worked at Carnival Cruise Lines as Senior Litigation Counsel for approximately four years and handled crew and guest claims in-house. Paul worked as a Litigation Associate for the maritime law firm of Mase and Gassenheimer, P. A. prior to his tenure at Carnival where he gained invaluable trial and litigation experience.