

RUBIE MARIE NOTTAGE, FCIArb, LL.M. (London and Cardiff), M.A. (Oxon): Justice of the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas (Retired), Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCIArb), London, Bahamas' Designee (2012-2018) on the World Bank's ICSID Panel of Conciliators and Arbitrators, Associate Professor (Retired), University of The Bahamas, Law Faculty, Nassau, Bahamas.

Justice Nottage is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCIArb), a member of the ICSID Panel of Conciliators & Arbitrators (Bahamas 2012-2018), a founding member of the CIArb, Bahamas Branch, and a former Director of Education and Training for the Branch. Justice Nottage (Ret.) has lectured in Constitutional Law at the University of the West Indies Law Programme at the then College of The Bahamas in her specialty fields of Alternate Dispute Resolution, Family and Employment Law.

Her academic Achievements include a Bachelor of Arts degree (B.A.) (Hons) (Political Science and Economics) from Queen's University, Canada; a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B) (Hons) degree from King's College, University of London; a Master of Laws degree (LL.M) (Distinction) in Taxation and International Economic Law from University College, University of London; a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree (Templeton Institute/COB); a Master of Arts (MA, Theology) (Schools) degree from Oxford University, England; a second Master of Laws (LLM)(Distinction) degree in Canon Law from Cardiff University, Wales; FIDIC (ECV Module 2) Training Course, Wealth Manager Course, (Bahamas Institute of Financial Services), and a Post-Graduate Diploma (PGDip)(Distinction) in International Commercial Arbitration (Centre for Commercial Law Studies) Queen Mary, University of London, with a specialty in International Trade and Investment Dispute Settlement.

Her appointments to date as Arbitrator have included matters concerning major public facility construction disputes, roadworks construction contracts, and condominium owners contract disputes, in which she has acted either solely or jointly in the reference with other arbitrators of international repute.

